3. (Unclassified - MG) EMPLOYMENT REQUEST Received a call from Celia Gainer, in the office of Representative James J. Blanchard (D., Mich.), who asked to set up an interview for a constituent, [redacted] After checking with WARO, I called Ms. Gainer back and confirmed 2:00 p.m. today. [redacted] a pending applicant with the Agency who was in the Washington area on another matter and wanted to talk to someone while he was here.

4. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON In response to his call of 16 November, called Duane Barnes, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress, and gave him some unclassified information on foreign countries' military foreign language program. I told him that there is some other information on the subject which is classified and that the interested Member of Congress could contact us directly to request the classified information. He asked me to pass this information on to Ned McMahon, of his office, who took over the handling of this request. Mr. McMahon later called and I gave him the above information.

Later in the day, I received a call from Matthew Cossolotto, in the office of Representative Leon E. Panetta (D., Calif.). Mr. Panetta is the Congressman interested in the above information in connection with a report he is doing for the President's Commission on Foreign Language and International Studies. After checking with NFAC/CSS, I told Cossolotto that we are pulling together some information and would get back to him on how to best provide it to Mr. Panetta.

10. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Ed Levine, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who asked for the name of the author of the 11 May 1964 memorandum regarding the [REDACTED] case, which was supplied to the Committee last week. This information had been sanitized from the memorandum. In addition, Levine indicated that this was not the memorandum originally mentioned to the staff by [REDACTED] CI/DDO, at the original briefing of the staff in the case. I told Levine I would get with him again to try to determine necessary information for us to locate the memorandum.

11. [REDACTED] LIAISON Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, met with the EUR Division Chiefs of Station Conference for approximately an hour, explaining Congressional oversight and the charter legislation. Afterward, Miller met with Fred Hitz, Legislative Counsel, and myself and asked that a full record of the Kampiles incident be compiled and forwarded to the Committee. He also cautioned us to look very closely at all aspects of the [REDACTED] case as the Committee's investigation had turned up a number of unusual incidents. Finally, Miller advised that Senator Gary Hart (D., Colo.) would probably assume the Chairmanship of the Subcommittee on Budget Authorization.
